QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

Clinical Education/Supervision

2007-present Purdue University

Instrumental in establishing the collaborative relationship between Purdue University and Indiana University Health Partners Arnett and developing this novel program. Placement of SLHS MS-SLP graduate students in this environment provides a powerful venue for learning that blends academic and professional learning in a field-based experience. Provide instruction and supervision to speech-language pathology graduate clinicians in the evaluation and treatment of communication and swallowing disorders in an acute care hospital and outpatient clinic environment. Additional practicum sites have included MD Steer Speech and Hearing Clinic, Indiana Veteran's Home, and Lafayette Otolaryngology.

Administration

2007-present Purdue University

Responsible for establishing and maintaining the collaborative relationship with Indiana University Health Arnett Hospital. Secure practicum opportunities for SLHS graduate students in this environment. Administrative duties within this role have included facilitation of observation/volunteer opportunities for SLHS undergraduates, consultation regarding programmatic development, compliance with regulatory agencies, establishment of competencies, creation and implementation of policies and procedures, marketing of services to internal and external physicians, interviewing of speech-language pathologists for hospital positions, coordination and integration of the delivery of speech-language pathology services with other services, and supervision and mentoring of six clinical fellows, two of whom were in the PhD program in SLHS.

2001-2007 Indiana University Hospital and Riley Hospital for Children

Responsible for the supervision of the clinical activities of 19 full and part time speech-language pathologists. Recruited, hired, and retained Speech-Language Pathology staff. Oversaw departmental orientation, completion of competencies, and annual performance appraisals. Insured departmental knowledge of and compliance with policies and procedures, universal precautions, infection control, corporate and regulatory compliance, HIPAA, continuous quality improvement, and service excellence. Tracked departmental trends, productivity, and revenue in order to procure additional personnel, to deploy existing personnel, and to reallocate resources as appropriate. Oversaw departmental supplies, equipment, and instrumentation. Furnished appropriate support and guidance to staff to facilitate modification of existing programs and development of new programs. Coordinated Speech-Language Pathology lectures and observation opportunities for
