

Speech-Language Pathology (MS-SLP) COURSE LIST

I. Foundational Courses

The foundational courses are required for all MS-SLHS students (both thesis and non-thesis track) pursuing clinical training.

SLHS #	Title	Cr.	Typically offered in:
50100	Neural Bases of Speech & Hearing	3	Fall 1
52100	Speech Disorders in Children	3	Fall 1
52300	Language Disorders in Children	3	Fall 1
53900	Dysphagia	3	Fall 1
53100	Language Disorders in Adults	3	Spring 1
53800	Motor Speech Disorders	2	Spring 1
58800	Evaluating Research- EBP I	2	Spring 1
68800	Research Integration and Dissemination - EBP II	2	Fall 2 - not required for thesis students

II. Specialty Courses

Students should take a minimum of 13 credits from this representative list. However, you are encouraged to take as many specialty courses as possible throughout the program. Some specialty courses may be offered on a rotating basis. They may also be cross-listed with the PhD program.

SLHS #	Title	Cr.	Typically offered in:
53200	Voice Disorders	2	Spring 1
54000	Augment. & Alternative Communication	2	Spring 1
53300	Medical Speech-Language Pathology	2	Summer
54300	Assessment and Treatment of Literacy Disorders	2	Summer (Maymester)
51800	Counseling in SLP & Au.D.	2	Summer
52500	Language and Communication in ASD	2	Fall 2
54401	School Clinical Methods	1	Fall 2 (required for students who want to work in a school setting)
52900	Stuttering	2	Fall 2
61900	Advanced Topics in Pediatric Feeding and Swallowing	2	Fall 2
51900	Cognitive Communicative Disorders	2	Fall 2

III. Clinical Practicum & Seminars

MS-SLHS students enroll in a series of clinical practicum and seminar courses throughout the program. In clinical seminars, you will be engaged in lectures and learning activities focused on current clinical knowledge and professional issues. In clinical practicums, you will obtain supervised clinical experiences to develop skills in evaluation and intervention of communication and swallowing disorders.

SLHS #	Title	Cr.	Semester
51900	Clinical Seminar	1	Fall 1, Spring1, Summer, & Fall 2 (1 cr. per semester)
54900	Clinical Practicum	3	Fall 1
54900	Clinical Practicum	3	Spring 1
54900	Clinical Practicum	2	Summer
54900	Clinical Practicum	3	Fall 2
64800	Educational Externship	6	Spring 2
64900	Healthcare Externship	6	Spring 2