Teaching & Pedagogical Coursework

- Summer 2018 Teaching & Learning in Higher Education (HIED 7970)
 Description: This course introduces key theories of teaching and learning in higher education and applies those theories to academic planning and assessment. Learners will reflect on their practice as teachers, analyze the metacognitive processes of learning and motivation, learn how to create academic plans, and create assessment plans for lessons, courses, and programs that are appropriate for higher education settings.
- Spring 2018 Seminar in College Teaching (HIED 8510)
 Description: This course provides an overview of the major issues in higher education and methods of instruction in college teaching through the use of experiential learning, discussion, lecture, group and collaborative activities, readings, case studies, email dialogue, student interaction, guest instructor presentations and reflective writing. Participants will experience active learning, develop their critical thinking skills about teaching, prepare a teaching philosophy, and practice teaching techniques. Teaching and learning issues are reviewed in depth. Contextual issues affecting teaching and learning are also discussed.

Teaching & Pedagogical Trainings
