 - Diverse; 68.4% IN Resident; 75.1% female; 15.3% URM; 20.7% 1st Gen
 - Four-year graduation rate of 77.4% compared to University's 66.6%
- Research Awards – have already exceeded previous year-to-date Department of Health and Human Services awards for 2024
- Areas to strengthen:
 - Number of postdoctoral researchers – increasing
- HHS Business Office Update
 - Grants Management Listening Sessions
 - HHS Budget Commitment:
R&R Investment of $1.5 million for research space

- HHS Budget Commitment: Funding to increase TA/RA-ship salaries

- Dean Search Update
 - No timeline scheduled

- HHS Listening Sessions, HHS Structure and Alignment
 - Conducted primarily in February
 - Full report may be released pending Provost Patrick Wolfe's approval
 - Health and Human Sciences
 - The next leader should focus on Health and Human Science collaboration
 - Request to support HHS student research and faculty collaborative and interdisciplinary research
 - Strengthen connections of HHS with regional clinical partners
 - Identify and find a pathway for School of Nursing to become its own College of Nursing
 - Ask the institution to pay attention to the HHS space master plan
 - Find ways to leverage interdisciplinary grants combining human health, environmental health, and animal health

- Open Q&A (including pre-submitted questions)
 - Regional Partners:
 - Tom Berndt: What are regional partners?
 - Aaron Bowman: Build new local and regional partners (we're not trying to partner with California, focus on more local and regional hospitals)
 - Tom Berndt: Medical Laboratory Sciences has collaborations as far away as Cleveland Clinic
 - Aaron Bowman: We're not looking to create artificial lines or barriers, just expand local partnerships
 - Laura Murray-Kolb Nutrition Science
 - LM: How can we increase postdoctoral fellows in the college and does the College have resources?
 - AB: HHS will support training grants, but cannot directly fund postdoctoral scholars. Greater flexibility for use of start-up funds – work with heads then approach Dean.
 - Psychological Sciences
 - How are DREAM hires going? Have any been successful?
 - AB: We have 7 slots, we don't believe they expire, so far we have succeeded in 1. A few are on-going and a few have been recently approved. We're not allowed to have contingency lists – if one fails, we seek reapproval between hires. This is about as well as the DREAM hires have gone across the university. Talking to President Chiang about process.
